Quotes from our Founding Fathers

"The sacred rights of mankind are not to be rummaged for among old parchments or musty records. They are written, as with a sunbeam, in the whole volume of human nature, by the Hand of Divinity itself, and can never be erased or obscured by mortal power."
-Alexander Hamilton

Welcome to the Pennsylvania Free State Newsletter.

This group is here to help Pennsylvanians organize their self-governing bodies at the county level. A government for the people and by the people. Feel free to join us at our zoom calls and in-person events if even just to learn more about what can be done to restore the Republic, the rule of law, and preserve our constitutional rights. Even better if you are interested in getting involved, we are here to support, guide and share community.

This group is well grounded in knowing that we are guided by the Creator and that the intention is for us to regain our inherited freedom and dominion. We are centered in love and in the creative process of establishing self-governance by the people and for the people.

Law of Correspondence

The second hermetic principle is the Law of Correspondence; or in other words, as above so below, as within so without, and as below so above, as without so within. Another way of putting it is "on earth as it is in heaven"- Matthew 6:10. Our experience here is one big giant mirror of what is within us. Which also means that what is out there reflects what is within us.

Our world is fractal. This means that the natural world repeats patterns from the largest known physical thing, to the smallest one. For example, every cell functions in a similar way to our full physical body. Every system or institution function like the people in it. Patterns in nature repeat in mind blowing ways and accuracy.

It can also be said that our world is holographic, meaning that every part of the larger picture is contained in every fragment of the picture. It could be broken into a million pieces and every one of those pieces would contain the whole picture. Breathtaking to know the entirety of everything is within each one of us. No separation, therefore, just like the spooky action in quantum physics; we affect everything with our thoughts and feelings.

Said another way, is that everything is contained within our consciousness, and I mean everything! Our consciousness contains a limitless source of possibilities and what we experience is without exception a projection of what is within.

This is often a very difficult pill to swallow. Yet, if you want to change yourself and/or the world, swallow it you must. There are no exceptions. It is seriously all or none. Beautifully, your experience is powerfully projected by you and therefore, every part of it can be changed. You just must swallow the pill and reclaim your true part in this experience. That part is magnificent and limitless.

Nothing about your experience will change with action unless it is first changed from within and the outer action is inspired. Some may get a small amount of success by forcing actions. However, unless the inner beliefs, feelings and energies shift, the change will not be stable and the action will be more difficult.

It is perfect that our experience is directly a reflection of what is within us and it is here that we are seated in incredible power. How flawless is that? How amazing to live knowing you have the best feedback for your journey in this game we call life! So how do we use this new knowledge to change our experience personally and beyond?

At the personal level, it has been said that our subconscious runs 95% of our lives. How they figured that out is a mystery! However, that is a lot of subconscious at work. Some even propose that, in reality, we make no conscious choices without becoming aware of our beliefs, changing them and who we decide to be. Once we anchor the new way of being, our choices and actions stem from the being of that new version of ourselves. Either way it's an inside job, and always has been.

The beauty is that the Divine gives you emotions to powerfully monitor your habit of being. It would be difficult to assess every thought since the proverbial "they" say we think 60,000 thoughts a day. Again, I have no idea how one could figure that out. However, emotions are a way to figure out which direction you are going. Is it toward what you prefer or away? Negative emotion means you are aligning with what you don't want. Positive emotion means you are aligning with what you do want. Pretty simple, as it has to be.

That doesn't mean your goal is to not have any negative emotion. Well that is a great goal if it is authentic. You can't stuff negative emotions down or ignore it. It is information about your beliefs and who you are being. Do not ignore them or paste a happy sticker on them. Honor them by recognizing you have chosen this emotion by habit based on your limiting beliefs about yourself and the world. That is okay. The circumstance that triggered it may also be giving you clarity as to what you truly want. So, use it appropriately.

Ask yourself "What do I have to believe about the circumstance, myself and/or others to choose this negative emotion? (and it is a choice, just a habituated subconscious choice). Then ask yourself, "What could I believe about all that has just been mentioned, that would feel better and more in alignment." Also, let any clarity about what you prefer for life, really sink in, and embrace that clarity as if it is true, with gratitude. Of course that will always feel better. Rinse and repeat…with every negative emotion.

The inspired actions will come with ease for yourself and the world at large. There is nothing you can't be, do or have and the same goes for every magnificent Divine Being; no matter what they are experiencing in this, oh so temporary, game we call life.

On the first Monday of every month, from 7-9 PM ET, a group of freedom-loving people from many different counties gathers to collaborate in the mission of restoring Pennsylvania to a land of freedom. (Zoom option available.)

Wednesday evenings from 7:30-9:00 PM ET (7:00 for Ambassadors). (The 3rd Wednesday's call is led by the Chester County Republic Assembly) These Training Calls are focused on education on our Country's founding documents and setting up Lawful Assemblies across Pennsylvania. Attending these calls can help you understand the functions of an assembly and teach you how to become an active participant.

Pennsylvania needs eighteen (18) counties to be settled on the land to become de jure (lawful). Currently, Pennsylvania has four (4) "official" county assemblies settled on the land. These are

Lancaster, Chester, Montgomery, and Allegheny counties. We also have ambassadors from various other counties who are interested in founding assemblies in their counties. If you are interested in starting an assembly, joining an assembly, or learning more about assemblies, please reach out to PennsylvaniaPioneers@protonmail.com .
